When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were all filled with fury. But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away. - Lk 4:28, 30

Al oír esto, todos los que estaban en la sinagoga se llenaron de ira. Pero él, pasando por en medio de ellos, se alejó de allí.

- Lc 4, 28. 30
And Jesus said, “Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place.” In today’s Gospel from Luke, people are literally trying to run Jesus over a cliff because they don’t like what he tells them. It seems that he is claiming to be the long-awaited Messiah. Also, he reminds them that even the great prophets before him faced opposition. Elijah and Elisha couldn’t work their miracles in Israel either, so they went elsewhere to do them.

Jesus escapes the chaos this time because he has so much more to do. He’s just getting started in teaching us about the Kingdom of God. Of course, this work continues with us, today, and right here. So who are the prophets among us that we ignore or drive away?

In the Hebrew Scriptures, the prophets were people who reminded the Israelites of God’s loving covenant, and of their need to stay faithful. They proclaimed a message of deliverance and offered people hope.

In our day, too, God speaks to us through other people. This parish is filled with disciples of Christ who have much to say about their own experiences of God. One good way that we share our experiences is through our Small Church Communities. These groups allow us to break open the Word together, and to see the unique ways that God meets each of us in our lives and in our prayer.

My experiences in small groups have helped me to grow closer to fellow parishioners, but also to be in awe most of the time at the way our friends and neighbors are living and experiencing their faith. We all have things we carry in life. It’s inspiring and humbling to hear how God helps us to bear the load.

We are prophets for each other and it’s good to hear these current-day messages of deliverance and hope.

With that in mind, I hope you’ll consider joining one of the many SCC groups available during Lent (I know, it seems like we just finished the Christmas season). Groups will begin studying the Sunday readings the week of February 25. SCC groups will meet once a week during Lent and offer a great opportunity for deeper Lenten prayer and reflection.

This Lent, you may choose to give something up, but you can also add something important. Joining a small group can help you enrich your prayer life and look at different perspectives on the readings.

Fr. James Martin likes to point out that faith sharing “is a terrific encouragement” in the spiritual life. “Often it’s easier to see God’s work in others, than in yourself. Likewise, others can often point out God’s activity in your life when you aren’t able to notice it.”

I hope you can spend a little time in thought and prayer about your upcoming Lenten practices, and about the possibility of adding a small group to your spiritual life.

Note: The Lent SCC groups will run the weeks of Feb. 25 through April 14. Sign-up will be online and we’ll be sending out notice of a link soon. We are also in need of small group facilitators to ensure that we have enough groups to meet everyone’s needs.

CAN YOU HELP LEAD A SMALL GROUP?

Small Church Communities (or SCCs) are a great way to get more involved with your faith and with the community here at St. Mary Student Parish. In order to provide enough groups for the upcoming Lent sessions, we need more facilitators.

Materials, guidance and prayer suggestions are provided. Facilitators help to keep the group on track and moving forward with fruitful discussion. You can choose a time and day that works best for you.

Parish Security

As a part of the vibrant downtown Ann Arbor community, we recognize the need to provide both a welcoming and secure environment. As such, we’ve been working over the last few months to implement new features at our Thompson Street entrance.

The first is enabling the two sets of glass doors to open at the push of a button, improving access for those with special mobility needs such as wheel chairs, strollers, etc.
The second is increased security for our students, staff, and parishioners. We have installed a new security system with several cameras and while we are testing it for the first few days, the Thompson Street entrance and the doors to the parish office will be locked. After the trial period, we will begin to limit access to the parish as follows:

- After 6:00 PM, the main entrance on Thompson Street will also be locked.
- On Wednesdays, the Thompson Street entrance will remain open for reconciliation and will be locked at 6:45 PM.
- On Sundays, building entrances will remain open, as will the doors to the parish office.

While you may not feel an increased security presence on Sundays, our new cameras will provide increased security everyday. Cameras have been installed in the church, atrium, building entrances, and in the courtyard.

As always, the safety of our students, parishioners, staff, and visitors is our top priority. We appreciate your patience while our community gets to know our new system.
Please contact the parish office with questions 734.663.0557

The group will meet on February 9, March 9, and April 13. The meeting in March will be in the home of Jim and Karen Stein as the church is closed for spring break. Everyone is welcome. I am thrilled to have been named pastor here at St. Mary! It is an honor to walk with all of you on our journey of faith. Speaking of faith, I am praying that God brings us another generous donor to seed our “March Match.”

As you know, for the past few years, God has been good in bringing forth a generous donor and matching gift for our March Match Madness fundraiser—a fun way to raise money for our Annual Fund—which supports all the programs we run out of our vibrant Campus Ministry. Last year, you raised over $100,000 for Catholic Campus Ministry with an outpouring of donations and the generous match.

Let’s pray that God sends us another generous donor whose matching gift will inspire the enthusiasm and generosity of parishioners and students alike and support our Campus Ministry program again this year.

Fr. Jim

ST. MARY DISCUSSION GROUP

SUN, FEB 17 | 3:00 PM

Join us at the February 17 meeting of the Discussion Group as Fr. Jim Gartland, S. J., speaks about his work with Cristo Rey Jesuit High Schools, which introduced a highly innovative integration of academic and professional experience to Catholic secondary education in the United States. Fr. Jim was part of the founding team of the first Cristo Rey Jesuit High School (Chicago) in 1996 and served as president from 2004–2012. The Cristo Rey Network has grown over the last 20 years from a single school in south Chicago to a national network of 35 schools. During a period when traditional Catholic schools were shuttering their doors at an alarming rate, the Cristo Rey Network has grown into the largest network of high schools in the country that exclusively serves low-income students.

As usual, we will meet at 3 p.m. in Donnelly Hall for coffee, cookies and conversation and begin the discussion about 3:15, ending by 5 p.m. All are welcome to attend.

Sunday Readings

FEBRUARY 3
FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

| Reading I  | Jer   | 1:45,17-19 |
| Psalm     | Ps    | 71:1-6, 15, 17 |
| Reading II | 1Cor  | 12:31-13:13 |
| Gospel    | Lk    | 4:21-30 |

“No prophet is accepted in the prophet’s hometown.” Thus did Jeremiah, and later, Jesus, encounter opposition and lack of faith; thus did both place their hope in the Lord. Paul speaks eloquently of the greatest of all gifts: love.

FEBRUARY 10
FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

| Reading I  | Is    | 6:1-2a, 3-8 |
| Psalm     | Ps    | 138:1-5,7-8 |
| Reading II | 1Cor  | 15:1-11 |
| Gospel    | Lk    | 5:1-11 |

Isaiah, a man of unclean lips, beholds the Lord’s glory in the temple and is sent on mission. Simon, a sinner, responds to the mission of Jesus by becoming a disciple. Paul, the persecutor, speaks of his call to preach nothing but Christ crucified and risen.
