Welcome
I am excited for the beginning of a new school year. Students are finding their way back, Masses are filling up, and the football season is about to kick off. I am gearing up for my first Welcome Weekend, and after ten months, I have come to know and love our community here at St. Mary Student Parish.

Welcome back to our returning students, and welcome to our new students, both undergraduate and graduate. I pray that you find yourself at home with all of us here at St. Mary.

This place is unique. We are a welcoming, inclusive, and diverse community uniting residents with students. I thank God that we have 80 student catechist passing our Catholic faith onto the young. We have a variety of activities and programs designed to form Christian leaders for tomorrow, internships, Ignite, graduate and young professional evenings, retreats, etc... Our Masses are alive with everyone singing and participating. We are excited to launch a new mentoring program that will link professional residents with students studying in their field.

With Pope Francis, we know that our faith is to take us out of the sanctuary and into the streets to serve and walk with the marginalized, a faith that does justice. We have activities and events throughout the year to keep us in solidarity with those who struggle. We are blessed to be a dual language community, a community that reflects the Church of today and tomorrow. We have begun to plan our 100 year anniversary, looking back to the past with gratitude, living the present with passion, and embracing the future with hope.

Thank you for being part of St. Mary Student Parish. I pray that you will find a home here, a place to deepen your friendship with Jesus, so to love Him intimately, and walk with Him with integrity. We do so as Jesus’ companions in our world today, and we do so as a community here at St. Mary.

Welcome and let’s kick off the year!

With prayers,
Fr. Jim

CATHOLIC TRADITION, IGNATIAN IDENTITY

The life and liturgy of St. Mary Student Parish emerge from our conviction that God is active in our world and that we can experience God’s presence and action in our daily lives.

As the great Jesuit paleontologist Pierre Teilhard de Chardin wrote, “God is not remote from us. He is at the point of my pen, my pick, my paintbrush, my needle, and my heart and my thoughts.”

This Ignatian spirituality embraces a way of discerning God’s presence in our everyday lives— and doing something about it— that was first taught by St. Ignatius of Loyola, the founder of the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits).

Ignatius was a Spanish Soldier and aristocrat who discerned his calling after suffering nearly fatal wounds on the battlefield. He founded the Society of Jesus in 1540, instructing the early Jesuits to go out and “find God in all things.” That is the signature spirituality of the Jesuits, and it is the spirituality that infuses Jesuit parishes.

The path to spirituality begins with an invitation to enter deeply into relationship with Jesus, so that the mind, heart, values, priorities, and loves of Jesus might equally become our own.

What are those values, priorities, and loves? Ignatius would encourage us to consider what Jesus said and did. At the foundation of Jesus’ life was prayer, a continuous search for how best to love as an authentic human being before a loving God. Jesus preached forgiveness of sins, healed the sick and possessed, and gave hope to the poor, to those socially and economically outcast. Jesus spoke of joy, peace, justice, and love; he summoned women and men from all classes of society to continue to follow his way to God, and his commitment to helping people become whole and holy.

Ignatian Spirituality is not merely an inward journey, much less a self-absorbed one. It aims to bring people closer to God and more deeply into the world—not away from it—with gratitude, passion, and humility. We desire as our first priority to ground our growth, our very being in the God who created us in love, to give love and to receive love. Our God gave us the gifts and abilities we bring here, and God encourages us—calls us—to grow in these abilities by using them not only for ourselves but for the wider world, especially for the wider world that suffers injustice, poverty, and oppression.

In all these things, we are nourished by our Catholic faith, rooted in the Universal Church under the leadership of Pope Francis. We live in hope that God hears and answers our prayers as we strive to become what we ask of God in one of the great Eucharistic Prayers of the Church.

Monday, Sep. 2 for the Labor Day holiday.

Daily Mass at 5:10 PM
Undergraduate and graduate retreats provide an opportunity for students and young adults to get away and take time amidst their busy lives for prayer, fellowship and reflection. These guided and peer-led retreats are a means to see how God is already at work in our lives, and the ways in which God is inviting each of us into a deeper relationship. Each retreat meets students and young professionals where they are, and inspires them to continue to find ways to meet God in their daily lives, and in their relationships and service with others.

FAITH FORMATION FOR YOUNG CHILDREN
The Catechesis of the Good Shepherd is a Montessori-based approach to the religious formation of children, rooted in Sacred Scripture, Liturgy, and respect for the child's rich relationship with God. Central to CGS is the atrium, a room containing beautiful materials that focus the child's attention on key scripture passages or liturgical moments. After an introduction by the catechist, the children are invited to work with a material on their own to continue their meditation. Because children learn by using their hands, working with materials allows them to enter more deeply into meditation, nurturing their relationship with God.
We invite children ages 3-5 years who are either in preschool or young 5s programs to participate in our Catechesis of the Good Shepherd Atrium at St Mary Student Parish. This faith formation opportunity will be held once a month during the school year (Dates TBA) after the 10:00 AM Mass from 11:15 AM-12:45 PM. It is a drop-off program. Materials cost is $35 per child for the year and scholarships are available.
If you are interested in enrolling your child or would like more information about this program please contact Catechists Katie Baidel and Maria Laberteaux at smsp.cgs@gmail.com.

CATHOLIC THINKERS BOOK CLUB

TUES, SEP 10  I  7:00 PM

The St Mary Student Parish Catholic Thinkers Book Club will resume reading, thinking, and discussing on Tuesday September 10, 2019. We will meet in the Loyola Room of the parish office from 7:00 PM until 8:30 PM. We will begin meeting in September and continue meeting each month until April 2020. The books we will be reading and discussing are listed below. The books will be available for purchase from Literati Bookstore. All are welcome and encouraged to participate.

SEPTEMBER - Company of the Poor. Paul Farmer and Gustavo Gutierrez. This book garnered a number of votes last year but didn’t make the top cut, but it’s revived this year.

OCTOBER - Jesus and the Disinherited. Howard Thurman. Amazon review called this book a “manual of resistance for the poor and disinherited”.

NOVEMBER - Here I Stand. A Life of Martin Luther. Roland Bainton. Bainton was an English theological historian. This book is noted as “the definitive introduction to Martin Luther and is essential reading for anyone seeking to understand this towering historical figure”.

DECEMBER - Heretics and Heroes. Thomas Cahill. This book is Volume VI of a series of histories written by Cahill. It takes a broader view of the times of the reformation and includes the “humanism of the Renaissance and the radical religious altercations of the Reformation”.

JANUARY - Trent: What Happened at the Council. John O’Malley. As you might remember O’Malley is the author of Vatican II which we read and enjoyed so this should be good. Also this book is on the heels of our reformation reading and as more knowledgeable folks (Liz) pointed out, Trent addressed the reformation so we will get the church response as well.

FEBRUARY - Vatican I: The Council and the Making of the Ultra Montane Church. Also by O’Malley. This completes the council cycle and brings us to the 19th century and what might be considered the (almost) contemporary church.

MARCH AND APRIL - Pope Francis: Untying the Knots. The Struggle for the Soul of Catholicism. Paul Vallely. This book brings us to the 21st Century and the contemporary church. This book comes highly recommended by member Thinkers and as it is two books in one (!) we will read this over a two-month period.

Contact John Paglione if you have any questions about the book club at jgpone@sbcglobal.net. If you are not already on the Book Club e mail list and wish to be included please send an email to John.

- SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION
  Wednesday 6:00-6:45 PM and Sunday at 7:30-8:15 PM or by appointment
We’re almost there! We have reached about 83% of our DSA goal of $88,896. Some of you mentioned you still need to send in your contribution. Please do so and thank to those who have. If we reach our goal, about one third will come back to us to support our Latino Ministry and Campus Ministry efforts. Let’s reach our goal. Thank you for your generosity.

Thank you for your gifts to the Diocesan Services Appeal!

This week we reached 83% of our DSA goal. Thus far 204 families have contributed to this year’s appeal. We are grateful for these contributions and invite others to join together to push us over goal for the benefit of our parish and the wider church. Further, one-half of all paid contributions received, over and above our parish goal, will be returned to our parish.

If you have not yet made a gift or a pledge, I invite you to do so today. Gift envelopes are available at both church entrances or the parish office. Or you may submit your gift online at www.dioceseoflansing.org/dsa.

SEPTEMBER 8
TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I  Wis  9:13-18b
Psalm   Ps  90:3-6, 12-17
Reading II  Phlm  9-10, 12-17
Gospel    Lk  14:25-33

Who can comprehend the Lord’s ways or conceive what the Lord intends? True wisdom leads us to acknowledge our limitations (a matter of “calculation”) and our idols of materialism as we seek to follow the Lord without reservation. True discipleship calls us to forgive those who have wronged us. May we gain the wisdom of heart to discern more fully our call to take up the cross of Jesus.

SEPTEMBER 1
TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I  Sir  3:17-18, 20, 28-29
Psalm   Ps  68:4-7, 10-11
Reading II  Heb  12:18-19, 22-24a
Gospel    Lk  14:1, 7-14

Humility and self-knowledge go hand in hand. Those who conduct their affairs with humility shall be exalted, while those who exalt themselves shall be humbled. The humble shall rejoice and exalt before God in the assembly of the heavenly Jerusalem.
