

St. Mary Student Parish
Catholic Campus Ministry at the University of Michigan

Intern for Faith Doing Justice

Mission/Purpose: Informed by Catholic social teaching and the example of St. Ignatius of Loyola, the Faith Doing Justice Ministry at St. Mary Student Parish seeks to provide opportunities for students and parishioners to grow in faith and love through acts of justice and charity.

Primary skills developed: Formation in social justice ministry and advocacy, administration, event planning, leadership skills, working with diverse populations

Supervised by: Campus Minister for Faith Doing Justice

Tasks/responsibilities:

- The Faith Doing Justice (FDJ) intern will facilitate, with the support of the campus minister, the Faith Doing Justice lead team. The lead team is responsible for creating and implementing a strategy to integrate service and working for justice into the life of the parish. The lead team consists of resident and student parishioners, with students assuming leadership roles. The lead team will plan and coordinate service opportunities, education for justice events, advocacy opportunities, and spiritual formation resources.
- Facilitate team meetings (typically, every other week).
- Coordinate FDJ communication and advertisement, specifically the creation of a monthly FDJ e-newsletter and the FDJ bulletin board.
- Assist in the coordination of the Ignatian Family Teach-In for Justice in Washington, DC and participate in this event.

Requirements/Recommendations: Previous experience with Faith Doing Justice and/or Alternative Spring Break is recommended. Interest in and experience with some aspect of social justice from a faith perspective is required.
