Spiritual Autobiographies
by Katie Loftus,
Intern for Family Faith Formation

Reflection and the Jesuit tradition go hand in hand. Part of finding God in all things is recognizing God’s presence in our own lives. We are called to reflect on our days, ask ourselves where we were successful, and understand where we fell short of God’s will. For me, this reflective process is a way to deepen my understanding of our faith and recognize specific instances of both strength and weakness in order to grow deeper in relationship with God and others. However, like most people, I do not make time to do this often enough. We are surrounded by constant distractions, responsibilities, and commotion in our everyday lives that detract from our ability and our willingness to be alone with our thoughts and enter into that reflective space.

These past few weeks, my fellow interns and I have been asked to reflect for a project given to us by SMSP. We are looking at our spiritual journeys - the good, the bad, and the ugly - in order to see the commonalities and differences in each of our stories. It is a powerful exercise in which we are forced to be vulnerable with ourselves, and each other, in order to truly acknowledge when we trusted in God wholeheartedly and when our faith wavered in the face of difficulty.

Personally, this has been an opportunity for me to really explore my faith journey from start to finish. As I enter into my final year at The University of Michigan, I am faced with many choices after graduation. In order to be the best person going forward, I must understand my past and recognize how my experiences have shaped who I am today. Through this spiritual exploration, I was able to understand what choices led me to where I am today, and acknowledge that each event, whether it was positive or negative has had a hand in my spiritual development and growth.

Each of the interns will be presenting our spiritual journeys on December 4th. There will be a variety of different presentations and stories, and it promises to be a great event! We would love for all members of St. Mary Student Parish, both students and resident parishioners, to come and hear our stories of faith, triumph, and struggle. While all of our experiences are different, the common thread of our faith connects us all to each other, to our brothers and sisters around the parish, around Ann Arbor, and around the world.

We hope to see all of you there as we share our spiritual journeys and ask for your continued support and prayers as we complete this project and prepare to share our stories with all of you!
Apply Now to be a STUDENT LEADER at St. Mary!

The Catholic Campus Community is the University recognized organization for Catholic undergraduates at Michigan. The mission of CCC is to provide opportunities for students to encounter God and grow in their faith. As the umbrella organization, CCC provides opportunities for students to share their gifts of leadership by engaging and inviting students, through service opportunities, planning and executing events, providing hospitality and welcome as well as many other roles within the parish.

St. Mary invites willing and eager students into positions of leadership, to grow as Catholic leaders today and for the church’s future. As a student parish we provide opportunities to learn through action. You will be able to develop your leadership skills alongside a dedicated staff and support system whose mission is to engage and develop student leaders. The Church needs dedicated students to lead and assist fellow students in their growth in building faith-filled friendships that lead to service beyond the walls of the church. Please read the following descriptions carefully and follow your own particular desires. We look forward to receiving an application from you and to accompanying you on your journey.

Friday, December 9 from 4-6pm

What better way to spread the good news of St. Mary’s than through song? Join the Outreach Team as we spread holiday cheer (and candy canes) throughout campus! We will meet at the parish at 4pm and head out from there.

The song list and lyrics will be provided. All levels of vocal ability are encouraged and all are welcome!

Prof. Pedraza – Immigration

Our undergraduate-led ministry draws its inspiration from Ignatius with a dual purpose: to welcome students into the parish, bringing them together as an undergraduate community through the sharing of a meal, and allowing them to engage with faith as it interacts in their everyday lives as college students.

We meet every Thursday of the academic year (except holidays).

Contact Jenny jline@smspnewman.org

JVC Information Table

Sunday, Nov 20 at 10:00 pm

A member of the JVC Staff and former JV will be at our 9pm mass and have a table of information after to chat with any students who might be interested in doing a year of service after graduation!
Vocations Night

It's more than a habit. It's a calling.

Tuesday Dec 13th from 8-9:30 PM

If you’ve ever been curious about the different religious vocations within the Catholic faith, come join us on a Tuesday at the beginning of each month at 8:00 PM to hear a vocation story from someone living out his/her religious vocation. Come hear how God worked in each of our speakers’ lives to ultimately guide them to their vocation, whether it be priesthood, sisterhood, marriage, consecrated virginity, consecrated secular living, etc. All you need to bring is yourself and open ears and heart.

For more information contact Ellie Huber (ehuber@umich.edu) or Abbie Schereo (aschereo@umich.edu).

Thursday, Dec 1

Cousins, Mary & Elizabeth

Women of every age are invited to connect, be inspired, and celebrate their faith with one another. Women of the Heart meets one Thursday of each month from 10:15 AM – 12:00 noon to enjoy a light brunch and explore relevant topics.

This year’s theme is Our Scriptural Sisters: Their Roles and Ours.

For more information contact Patty Barry (pmmm@comcast.net) or Phyllis McLaughlin (pbmclaughlin@comcast.net).

---

Eucharistic Adoration

11/30 from 6-10 PM

Eucharistic Adoration will also take place in the church, offering you a time to reflect and pray quietly before the Lord.

People are invited to come when they can and stay as long as they like.

Contact Bret bretepat@umich.edu

Get Baked

3rd Sunday of the Month from 3-5 pm

All students and resident parishioners are invited to the Newman Hall kitchen to bake cookies and bars for upcoming SMSP events. These delicious treats will be added to the freezer and will be available to any group meeting at SMSP. Everything provided, just bring yourself. We will usually meet 3rd Sunday of the month. No experience necessary. Taste testing required!

For more info, please contact Susan at smaulb@umich.edu

SUNDAY READINGS

NOVEMBER 20
OUR LORD JESUS CHRIST, KING OF THE UNIVERSE

Reading I 2 Samuel 5:1-3
Psalm Psalms 122:1-5
Reading II Colossians 1:12-20

In Hebron, David is hailed as king of all the tribes of Israel. Jesus is anointed king on the wood of his cross, a sign of paradox, of defeat yet final victory. Through his cross we have passed from darkness into the kingdom of light.

NOVEMBER 27
FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Reading I Isaiah 2:1-5
Psalm Psalms 122:1-9
Reading II Romans 13:11-14
Gospel Matthew 24:37-44

Let us rejoice in the Lord’s peace; let us live honorably as we await his return.

PLEASE THANK OUR SPONSORS!
This bulletin is furnished to the parish without charge. The advertisements that appear completely defray all publishing costs with which the church would otherwise be burdened. Please patronize these sponsors as a thank you for their kind generosity.
