Interfaith Team

Mission:

The Interfaith team at SMSP exists so that students can meaningfully engage with religious diversity on campus in a way that unites students in common purpose, enables interfaith understanding, and creates a capacity for positive and sustainable interfaith cooperation at SMSP, the University of Michigan, and beyond.

Position Description/General Responsibilities:

This Interfaith team will be comprised of student leaders who are passionate about uniting students across religious diversity. We welcome students with experience in interfaith work, as well as those who don't have experience but are interested in learning more about it!

Students will:

- Attend biweekly meetings at SMSP, where students will dialogue about current events surrounding religion (and Catholicism), plan events, and strategize about building a capacity for interfaith cooperation at UM
- Attend and organize interfaith opportunities/events on campus and in Ann Arbor, including the UM Bicentennial Religious Diversity events in the spring
- Communicate and build connections with students in other faith-based student organizations on campus
- Work to create an Interfaith Day of Service
- Help establish an Interfaith Club on campus

Requirements:

- Values the traditions and philosophies that are different from one's own
- Have a passion for creating unity among different groups of people and working for a collective purpose
- Be willing to increase one's own religious and interfaith literacy
- An enthusiasm for St. Mary's, as well as for meeting and working with new people on campus and in our Ann Arbor community
