

INTERESTED IN DOING POST-GRAD SERVICE?

BECOME A VOLUNTEER TEACHER

AT YAP CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL IN THE PACIFIC ISLANDS

TEACHING

- Small classes filled with eager, bright students plus mentoring equals the perfect place to learn to teach.
- Coach sports, moderate or start your own club.

COMMUNITY

- Live in an intentional volunteer community of recent college graduates off-campus in a local village.
- Participate in traditional Yapese culture.

SPIRITUALITY

- Regular faith-sharing and reflection.
- Connection to the local Jesuit community for support.
- Campus ministry opportunities.

CONTACT US

We are accepting applications for the 2017-2018 school year.
Interested and have more questions? E-mail ychsrecruiter@gmail.com
Visit us online! www.facebook.com/YapCatholic

Yap Catholic High School was founded in 2011 as the first Catholic high school on the island of Yap. Today, YCHS is staffed by 3 Jesuits, an American principal, 1 local teacher, and 5 volunteer teachers who are alumni of Fordham University, Seattle University, Spring Hill College, and Boston College.

